DR. NORMAN POLANSKY, LEFT, CARBONDALE NATIVE, and Regents' Professor of social work at the University of Georgia, is congratulated by Dr. Vincent De Francis after receiving the Vincent De Francis Award from the American Humane Society. The De Francis Award recognizes significant contributions and services in the field of child protection. Polansky has spend more than 15 years conducting research on child neglect and writing books on the subject.